ICE LAUNCHES OPERATION COMMUNITY SHIELD, 103 ARRESTS OF GANG MEMBERS IN SIX MAJOR U.S. CITIES 30 MS-13 Arrests in New York Area

NEW YORK, N.Y. – Thirty members of the violent street gang “Mara Salvatrucha” (MS-13) have been arrested in the New York metropolitan area under “Operation Community Shield,” a new nationwide anti-gang initiative led by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Nationwide, enforcement actions under Operation Community Shield have netted 103 arrests, with roughly half of those having past arrests or convictions for violent criminal behavior. ICE officials announced the launch of Operation Community Shield along with these results today in a Washington, D.C., press conference.

Late last month, teams of ICE agents working with their federal, state, and local counterparts to target MS-13 members on criminal and/or administrative charges in the six metropolitan areas where the gang is most active: Washington, D.C.; Baltimore; New York; Newark; Los Angeles; and Miami. One arrest was also made in the Dallas area.

The 103 individuals arrested to date are accused of, or have already been convicted for, a wide variety of crimes that include murder, attempted murder, sodomy, assault, narcotics violations, weapons possession, re-entering the United States after deportation, and being in the United States illegally.

“Today, New York is announcing the arrests of 30 criminal alien gang members whose activities threatened the welfare of our communities,” said Martin D. Ficke, ICE’s Special Agent-in-Charge for New York. “ICE is committed to ridding our communities of gang violence and making our communities safer for everyone. We will continue to work closely with local law enforcement agencies to this end.”

The 30 MS-13 gang members arrested in the New York area had prior convictions for attempted murder, criminal possession of a weapon, battery, assault with intent to cause injury with a weapon, the possession and sale of a controlled substance, and resisting arrest.

Operation Community Shield is a nationwide ICE anti-gang initiative designed to disrupt and dismantle violent street gang organizations by employing the full range of authorities and investigative tools available to ICE. Under this initiative, ICE is employing its broad immigration authorities (both criminal and administrative) against gang members, as well as its customs authorities to narcotics smuggling, shut down money laundering operations, and seek the forfeiture of assets.

This initiative also involves strong partnerships and cooperation with existing federal, state, and local anti-gang efforts. Such partnerships are essential to the success of the initiative and to ensure officer safety during operations. In New York, ICE has partnered with the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office; the Suffolk County Police Department; the Nassau County Police Department; the Suffolk County Sheriff's Office; the Nassau County Sheriff's Office; the Suffolk County Probation Department; the Port Washington Police Department; the Hempstead Police Department; and the Freeport Police Department.

ICE will also be working through its 54 International Attaché offices in other countries to cooperate with foreign governments that are also experiencing gang problems, particularly in Central America.

The initial target of Operation Community Shield is MS-13, a gang which originated in El Salvador and which is now one of the largest and most violent street gangs in the United States. Many MS-13 members are foreign nationals in this country illegally, making them subject to ICE's criminal and administrative immigration authorities. ICE plans to use these immigration tools to arrest, prosecute, and where appropriate, remove these individuals from the United States. ICE coordinates all deportations with the foreign nations receiving these individuals.

At the same time, many MS-13 members derive income from the sale of illegal drugs and other contraband, making them subject to ICE's counter-drug, financial, and other investigative authorities. Seizure and forfeiture of funds, property, and other illegally-derived assets will be another component of the initiative.

Operation Community Shield is an intelligence-driven operation in which ICE has compiled thousands of names of known gang members and associates from state and local law enforcement agencies and run those lists against immigration databases to determine who is in the country illegally or in violation of immigration status.

Over the coming months, ICE will be using all these tools in a combined fashion with the goal of crippling MS-13 organizations across the country. Ultimately, Operation Community Shield will also target other violent street gangs.
